

REDACTED

REDACTED

(p) Arrest Locations.

Officers can knock on a door and request to speak with the occupants of the house without first obtaining a search warrant. However, in order to enter a residence, someone who has authority to do so must grant informed consent, unless a court-approved search warrant is obtained in advance.

REDACTED

REDACTED

CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION

USO00018

U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement

HQDRO 50/12.8

Office of the Director

801 I Street NW
Washington, DC 20536

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION

FROM: Anthony S. Tangeman
for Anthony S. Tangeman
Director
Office of Detention and Removal

SUBJECT: Addition of Chapter 19, Section 5 (Field Operations/Tactics) of the Detention and Deportation Officer's Field Manual (DDFM)

The DDFM is changed to reflect the addition of Section 5, Chapter 19. Accordingly the DDFM is changed as follows:

19.5 Field Operations/Tactics

REDACTED

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY
LAW ENFORCEMENT SENSITIVE

CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION

US000043

Memorandum for Distribution
Subject: Addition of 19.5 to the DDFM

Page 5

V. ARREST LOCATIONS

REDACTED

Officers
can knock on a door and request to speak with the occupants of the house without first obtaining a search warrant. However, in order to enter a residence, someone who has authority to do so must grant informed consent, unless a court-approved search warrant is obtained in advance.

REDACTED

REDACTED

REDACTED

CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY
LAW ENFORCEMENT SENSITIVE

US000047